THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY EVENING MARCH 11.

LIKE MEN.—Roosters, says Josh Billings, are the pugilists among birds; and, having no suitable shoulder tu strike from, they strike from the heel. When a rooster gets whipped, the hens all march off with the other rooster, if he ain't half so big or so hausum. It is pluck that wing a hen. Roosters; az a class, won't do enny household work; yu kan't git a rooster tu pay enny attention tew a young one. They spend most of their time in crowing and strutting, and once in a while they find a worm, which they make a great fuss over, calling their wives up from a distance, apparently to treat them, but jist az the heas git there, this elegant cuss bends over and gubbles up the worm. Just like a man for all the world !

AFTER DINNER SLEEPING -Many persons are in the habit of sleeping half an hour immediately after dinner. This is a bad practice. Ten minutes' sleep before dinner is worth more than an hour after. It rests and refresh es and prepares the system for vigorous diges tion. If sleep is taken after dinner it should be in the sitting posture, as the horizontal position is unfavorable to healthful digestion. Let those who need rest and sleep during the day take it before dinner instead of after, and they will soon find that they will feel better, and that their digestion will be improved thereby. - Herald of Health.
